

Dear Friends,

On June 2nd a tragic fire in Arlington Heights left a 6th grade girl Bridget Finnerty and her 6 year old brother Pierce orphaned. Their 11 year old brother Garrett also died in the fire.

I didn't know the Finnerty family personally, but I couldn't read the articles without tears in my eyes. Like many of you I wanted to do something for Bridget and Pierce. Knowing what a great program the shop and share is I set up a fund raiser with Jewel.

Please help make this a huge success by passing this e-mail to EVERYONE you know. The more people that receive this the more we can help the Finnerty children.

Here's how it works.....

Please cut off the shop and share identification slip below. Bring it with when you shop at any Jewel. The 3 dates are listed below on the coupon. Once you are done shopping just hand the signed slip to the cashier. Your simple gesture will earn Bridget and Pierce 5% of the total of the purchase! You may shop more than once. Just bring a photocopy of the identification slip and keep shopping! Jewels can be found not only in Illinois but in Indiana and Iowa.

If your interested in sending in check donation as well....

Check can be sent to Jennifer Murphy (guardian of children) at Village Bank & Trust, 3225 Arlington Heights Rd Arlington Heights IL.

Thanks,
Jeanne McCue
